Masters Cup

THE WORLD'S MOST WATCHED PHOTOSHOW

International Color Awards annual Photography Masters Cup promotes the finest contemporary photographers to the world's leading art directors, agencies, editors, galleries, curators, publishers, and dealers of photographic art. The program provides a international stage for established professional photographers to show their best work to important key industry tastemakers who can take their profile and reputation to the next level of commercial success. For the non-professional photographer it's an opportunity for their work to be endorsed by captains of the industry and help give them confidence to start soliciting for assignments and become professional photographers.
